

SOUTHERN N.E. NOT GIVEN UP

President Chamberlain Says It Has Not Been Abandoned

LACK OF FUNDS CAUSE OF DELAY

Resignation of E. H. Fitch as Its President Accepted

Boston, Jan. 31.—Directors of the Grand Trunk, the Central Vermont and the Southern New England railroads met at the Touraine in Boston yesterday.

Earl H. Fitch, who was president of the Southern New England, formally presented his resignation from the board and it was accepted. E. J. Chamberlain, president of the Grand Trunk, was elected to succeed him as president and ex-Governor E. C. Smith of Vermont was elected to succeed him on the board of directors.

President Chamberlain made a statement to the newspaper men to the effect that the Southern New England project has not been abandoned, but is simply waiting for improved financial conditions.

The following named men attended the conference:

E. J. Chamberlain, president of the Grand Trunk railway and president of the Central Vermont railway.

Former Governor E. C. Smith of Vermont.

George C. Jones, general manager of the Central Vermont, of St. Albans.

Cy Warman, press agent of the Grand Trunk.

E. H. Fitch, former president of the Central Vermont and formerly vice-president of the Grand Trunk.

Judge Kenefick, of the Grand Trunk legal force.

Judge J. W. Remick of Concord, N. H.

John S. Murdock of Providence.

C. W. Witters, vice-president of the Central Vermont, of St. Albans, Vt.

W. H. Chaffee, treasurer of the Central Vermont, of St. Albans, Vt.

Howard G. Kelly, vice-president of the Grand Trunk, and consulting engineer of the Southern New England.

Although President Chamberlain was reluctant about discussing the situation he said that he would return to Boston in about two weeks and would have something interesting to tell them.

STANTON OUSTED.

Kansas Socialist State Senator Is Unseated.

Topeka, Jan. 31.—The Kansas state Senate yesterday unseated its only Socialist member, Fred Stanton, by a vote of 28 to 10 in favor of E. E. Porter, Republican.

The evidence tended to show that men crossed the line from Missouri to vote for Stanton, that there were errors in count and that scores of aliens voted.

IMMIGRATION BILL MOVES

House for the Third Time Accepts the Measure

PEPPERY HEARING ON WEIGHT RULES

Heiskell Ends Senate Service of Twenty-Two Days

Washington, Jan. 31.—The conference report on the immigration bill was again accepted by the House. It was the third time that the measure had been taken up in the House, because of the Senate's insistence on further conferences. It finally was adopted after a short debate, during which the bill was characterized by some as un-American, un-patriotic, vicious and unnecessary and warmly defended by others. It now goes to the Senate.

In a peppery atmosphere which kept senators at the sneezing point, representatives of manufacturers of flavoring extracts, spices and peppers appeared yesterday before the Senate Manufacturers' committee to ask that the "weight bill" be amended so as to permit "reasonable variations." They produced samples to show that it was impossible to manufacture glass containers of precisely the same size. "It seems to me a hardship and an unreasonable additional cost to require the man who sells peanuts at the ball park to have the weight marked on each package," declared Senator Oliver, chairman. Edward F. Forbes of Boston, John M. Green of the National Retail Grocers' association and others spoke.

Senator John N. Heiskell of Arkansas, whose successor will take office today, made farewell yesterday to his twenty-two days service as senator. "My successor is bearing down upon me," declared Senator Oliver, chairman. "I am armed with a commission that will serve as a writ of dispossession for me. He will in turn serve but a short while, when another will come to take his place for the long term. There is senatorial glory enough to go around if you keep it moving fast."

WILSON WANTS FISHER.

Secretary of Interior May Continue in the New Cabinet.

Washington, Jan. 31.—President-elect Wilson is bringing the strongest possible pressure to bear upon Secretary of the Interior Fisher to accept the same portfolio in the new cabinet as he now holds in that of President Taft. This information is positive. Mr. Fisher is reluctant to accede to the request of Mr. Wilson, it is understood, on financial grounds. On the other hand, he does not like to refuse because he is thoroughly interested in his work, which he feels has only just begun. The president-elect has been urging Mr. Fisher by special messenger and by correspondence. Many of those in Washington who are acquainted with the situation believe that in the end Fisher will accept.

PRESIDENT-ELECT QUESTIONED.

But Correspondents Fail to Get Cabinet Make-Up.

Trenton, Jan. 31.—President-elect Wilson permitted himself to be questioned at great length by correspondents yesterday about the makeup of his cabinet, and seemingly enjoyed the efforts made to secure information.

The governor, however, carefully avoided disclosures. He intimated that possibly the declaration of a single portfolio might make it necessary to redistribute the entire cabinet.

Except for a visit of Representative Carter Glass, chairman of the House sub-committee on banking and currency, the governor devoted the day to New Jersey business.

Honor to Boy Corn Grower.

Washington, Jan. 31.—In recognition of the record of Lester Bryant, champion boy corn grower of Kentucky, who died recently, a bill has been introduced by Representative Thomas providing for the erection of a monument over the youth's grave.

ODDS AND ENDS OF THE TARIFF

Committee Takes Up the Last of the Schedules

A WIDE VARIETY OF INDUSTRIES

Audubon Man Wants Protection for Husbands Against Millinery Bills

Washington, Jan. 31.—The sundry schedule of the tariff law, with its large number of varying articles that fall outside the other thirteen schedules, was again up for discussion yesterday before the House committee on ways and means. The hearing room was crowded with representatives of interests involved and there was a formidable list of witnesses that promised to occupy not only all day but possibly the night.

Most of the witnesses want retention of the present tariff on the products of their industries. The testimony all through the tariff hearings has been liberally sprinkled with politics, the Democratic members of the committee contending for the principles of tariff for revenue only, with occasional free trade suggestions, and the Republicans intending in their examination of witnesses to bring out the efficacy of the doctrine of protection for home industries and the working operation of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. The remaining hearings will be on the free list, the miscellaneous provisions and the administrative features of the tariff.

Chairman Underwood stated at the opening of yesterday's hearing that the present 20 per cent. tariff on harness and saddlery was too high. The statement was made while E. W. Campbell of Cincinnati, representing a saddlery association, was pleading for the retention of the duty. "We are not going to write a prohibitive tariff," said Mr. Underwood.

Mr. Campbell testified that when the conferees between the two houses were framing the Payne-Aldrich law, President Taft asked him what he thought was a proper saddlery tariff, and the witness telegraphed the association's view that twenty per cent. was sufficient and that the president communicated this view to the conferees. Representative Payne of New York said he had no recollection of any such communication from the president. The fight to bar out saddlery from the country in the interest of the National Association of Audubon Societies and other organizations favoring the protection of birds was led by Dr. William T. Hornaday for the New York Zoological society. He advocated a specific prohibition against the importation of plumage of wild birds for millinery.

T. Gilbert Pearson of New York, secretary of the National Association of Audubon Societies, endorsed the hearing by suggesting that it was not only a matter of protection for the birds, but of protection for husbands, as, he said, women would buy feathers at $100 an ounce.

Adolph Keller of New York, wanted a 25 per cent. tariff on agate buttons.</
